FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Queen of the Random Job retires and Work at Home FAQ is born!

Anacortes, Wash., (July 11, 2018) – After nearly 20 years of being Queen of the Random Job, Bethany Mooradian is retiring her title to create Work at Home FAQ.

Queen of the Random Job started as a way for Mooradian to teach others how to find legitimate work at home jobs and avoid scams. Through classes, books, and the website:

www.QueenoftheRandomJob.com, Mooradian answered questions and helped other find ways to earn income outside of a normal nine-to-five routine.

While Mooradian had been contemplating a name change to better suit what her business had become for awhile, it wasn't until July 2018 that she decided to make the leap and Work at Home FAQ was born. The focus of the new business remains the same: to answer questions about working from home, freelancing, self-employment, mystery shopping, and avoiding scams.
